Camp Ridgecrest for Boys

One of our most precious possessions is today's boy, for he will be tomorrow's man. A boy is the person who is going to carry on what you have started today. He is going to sit right where you are sitting and, when you are gone, attend to those things you now think to be most important. You may adopt whatever policies you please, but how they will be carried out depends entirely upon him. • He will take charge of your churches, schools, universities and corporations. He will assume control of your cities, states and nations. Your books, buildings, businesses—every facet of the heritage you leave behind—will be judged by him. The fate of humanity lies in his hands.

Why we are here

•This is why we are here. The sole reason for the existence of a Christian boys' camp is to promote the physical, mental, moral and spiritual development of the BOY. This is the sacred purpose and trust to which we at Camp

• Life here at Camp is simple, virile and robust. It is living close to nature, close to the earth; yet it is living within a community of real people. Camping is not merely preparation for life; it IS life itself. It is face-to-face contact with the ebb and flow of human experience. It is opportunity, under competent supervision, of learning to be on one's own, of experimenting with hopes and dreams, decisions and responsibility, hard work and achievement, laughter and tears. It teaches cooperation and independence. It brings out qualities of leadership that make for courageous and successful living in the world. • How can this character-building be done best? We at Camp Ridgecrest firmly believe in the value of learning from example. To this end the finest of committed, Christian young men are selected to guide and counsel this "most precious possession" - your boy. • Through the years Camp Ridgecrest has met the test; and many boys have become finer, stronger, more useful men because of it. Will your boy become one of ideal location with excellent facilities

Camp Ridgecrest is ideally situated in the very heart of the Blue Ridge Mountains of western North Carolina. At an altitude of 2,700 feet, the air is always cool and invigorating, even on the hottest summer days, and blankets feel good at night. The camp's beautiful and spacious site is a part of a 1,900-acre tract which belongs to the Ridgecrest Baptist Assembly and provides abundant privately owned, wooded, mountainous acreage for all types of camping activity. Also, many nationally famous beauty spots and camping grounds in this vicinity are utilized in the camp program. The camp itself is located just eighteen miles east of Asheville, easily accessible by all modes of public transportation.

Camp Ridgecrest has a choice site, nestled in the mountains and adjoining a large beautiful lake. Crystal clear mountain water comes from the Assembly's 12 million-gallon reservoir and is tested regularly by the State Board of Health. Two spacious dining halls are served by an up-to-date kitchen and supervised by a competent dietician. Campers' living quarters consist of 23 well-constructed cabins, which are well ventilated, yet dry and fully screened. Excellent facilities are available for all types of sports.

SPILMAN LODGE—a gymnasium-dining hall with log construction, maple playing floor and well-equipped kitchen.

LAKE LODGE – for administration, rendered in stone and wood.

INFIRMARY—modern in every aspect, with a 12 bed ward.

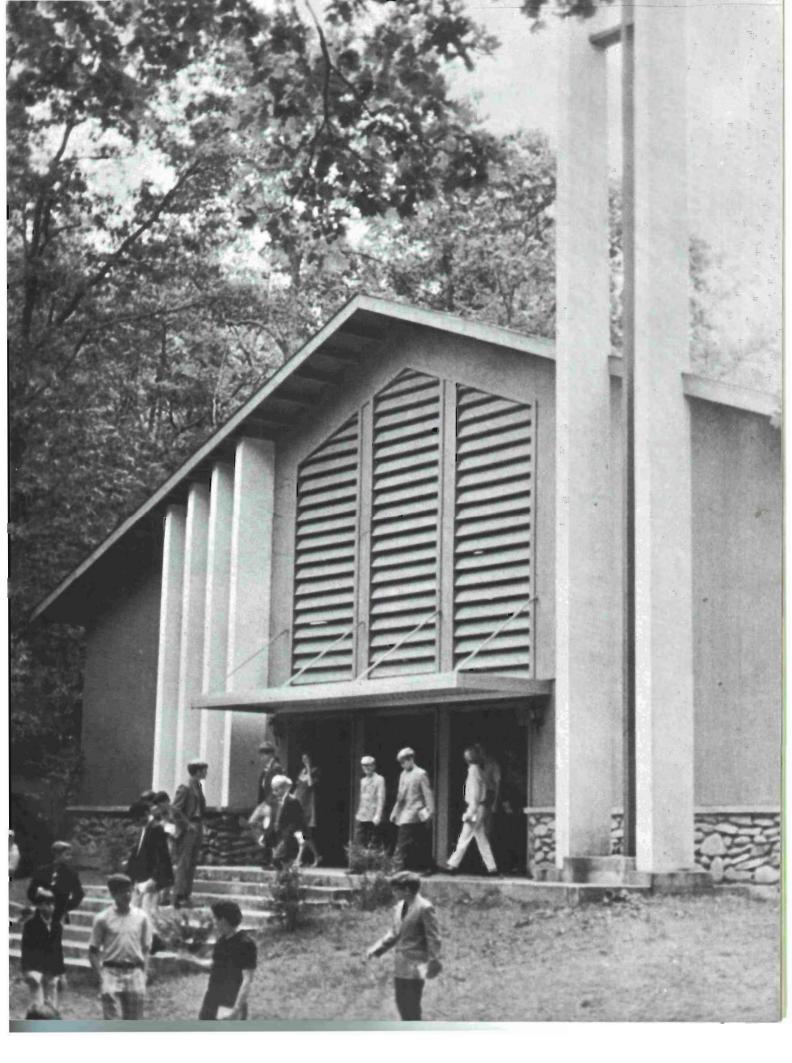

ACTIVITIES BUILDING $-\,3$ basketball courts, suited for multiple use

CRAFTS LODGE — fully equipped for ceramics and other hand work activities

The superb buildings and facilities are given life by happy boys involved in worthwhile activity.

Everything possible is done at Camp Ridgecrest to assure the highest degree of health of the campers. Physicians in Black Mountain, just two miles from camp, and in Asheville are ready to serve the boys at any time, day or night. Registered nurses live in the infirmary and are on duty around the clock.

Camp Ridgecrest has the finest of camp infirmaries. This modern, efficient structure, built to function as a small hospital, contains a twelve-bed ward, a waiting room, a first-aid room, a fully equipped kitchen, three baths, separate living quarters for two nurses, and a large porch, all of which are kept immaculately clean. An adequate health and accident insurance policy is carried on each camper.

The camp is justly proud of its good food. Grade A homogenized milk is served daily. Fresh vegetables and finest meats are prepared by our competent dietician and chefs for the boys' enjoyment.

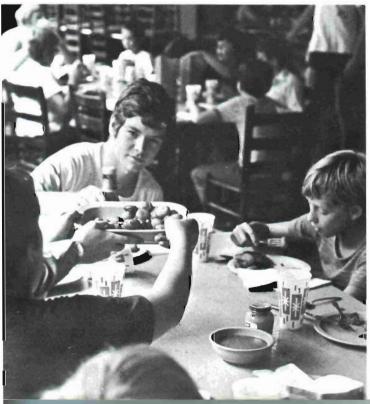

Living quarters for campers consist of comfortable and well-equipped cabins. Each has ample openings for ventilation, yet wide overhanging roofs protect these carefully screened areas in rainy weather. Cabins house an average of seven to eight boys and their counselor living together. Every camper is assigned a steel spring bunk with pillow and comfortable mattress, and ample locker space. The boys take special pride in keeping their cabins clean and neat to meet morning inspection requirements. The boys in each cabin work together as a unit in many activities during the session, and an unusual amount of cabin pride is taken in competitive sports and games. All cabins are lighted by electricity.

The Apache and Sioux schedules vary somewhat from this list. There is less emphasis on rigid scheduling for Apaches and more emphasis on out-of-camp trips for the Sioux.

development of mind and body

Camp Ridgecrest offers a broad and exciting program for campers from eight to sixteen years of age. From morning until night each camper's time is occupied with a wide variety of interesting and enjoyable activities. The Camp is divided into three distinct units, comprised of four tribes. Each age group has a rewarding program suited to its specific interests and needs.

These units are divided as follows:

Lower Camp

Apache Tribe - ages 8 and 9

Middle Camp

Shawnee Tribe - ages 10 and 11

Choctaw Tribe—ages 12 through 14 (8th grade)

Upper Camp

Sioux Tribe – ages 14 (9th grade) through 16

The campers' schedule of daily activities is a result of much experience and careful planning. It makes the most of every hour of the day, yet rest periods and milder sports are intermingled with the more vigorous activities so that no camper suffers from overexertion.

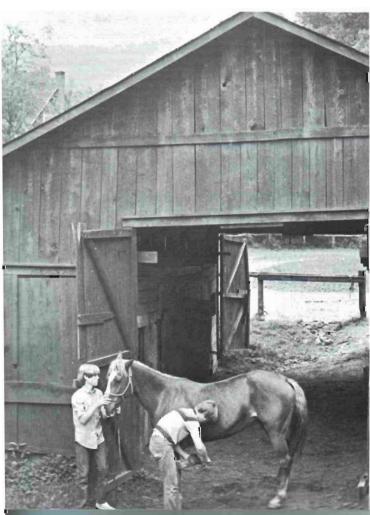

Each camper joins in team sports such as football, baseball, softball, soccer, volleyball and all the outdoor games boys love. Size and age are no disadvantage, since all such group activities are carried out according to tribes.

In addition to group sports, each boy may select skills in which he receives intensive training during Skill Instruction Periods each day. These skills include horseback riding, archery, riflery, tennis, basketball, water sports, outdoor living, Indian lore, hand crafts and many other fine activities.

Another important part of camp life centers around camping activities. Hiking over scenic trails, cooking supper over the campfire, and sleeping out are regular treats. The Sioux Tribe has a much heavier emphasis on camping out than on skills' instruction.

lake ridgecrest for fun and learning

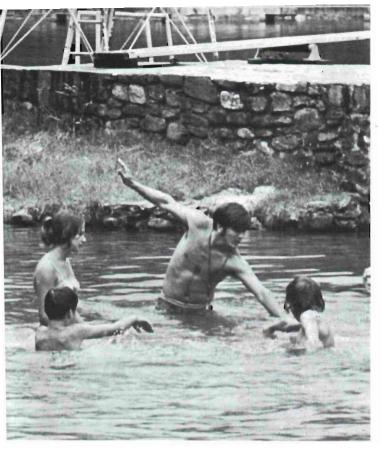

A chief attraction of camp life, Lake Ridgecrest is and ideal camp lake, fully equipped according to Red Cross waterfront safety standards. It is a beautiful lake, large enough for swimming, boating and canoeing and at the same time small enough to make close supervision and full compliance with safety regulations possible. The Buddy System is used and lifeguards are on duty at all times. The boating area is separated from the swimming area by a series of floats. A separate area is used to train beginners, and the program is under the supervision of a qualified Red Cross Water Safety Instructor.

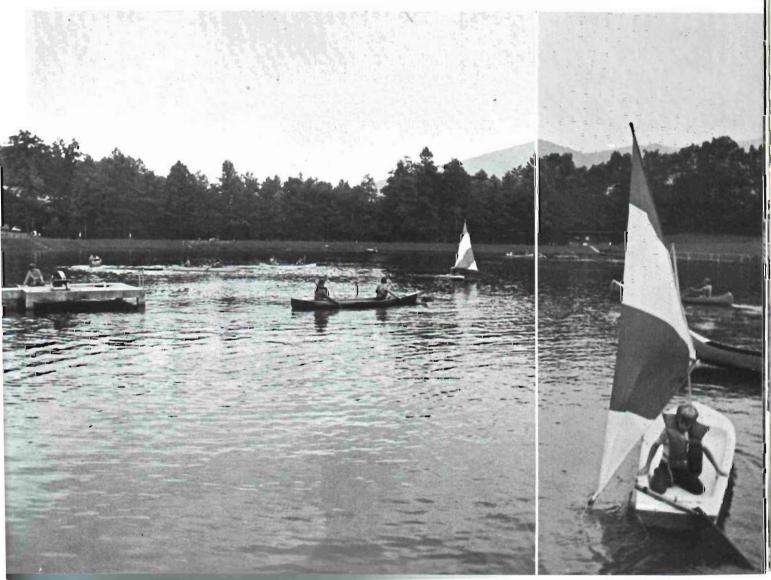

Equipment includes a lifeguard platform, many piers, canoes, sailboats, waterfront trampoline and individual safety devices—all combine for much fun and maximum safety.

Ducks, turtles, salamanders, tadpoles and minnows join us during the many happy times in Lake Ridge-crest.

camping out

Normally each cabin of boys makes an average of two overnight hikes every week. A meal cooked over an open fire after a long hike, stories and songs around the campfire, and a good night's sleep under the stars all add up to the fulfillment of a boyhood dream. Campers are encouraged to bring whatever camping gear they may own. The Sioux Tribe gives special emphasis to this facet of camp life, camping out as much as four nights a week.

discovering the purpose for mind and body... worshipping GOD

Worship at Camp Ridgecrest—morning watch, cabin devotions, and Sunday morning—is a simple, natural and integral part of camp life. Through his intimate contact with the beauties of God's great outdoors, his wholesome association with other fine boys, and the influence and example of Christian counselors, each camper may develop a greater consciousness of God's presence in the experiences of everyday living. The entire program is geared to relate worship and religious commitment to the daily routine in a natural, unforced manner.

For over forty years the Indian Lore program has played a vital part in the life of Camp Ridgecrest. Each boy has the rare opportunity to learn many fascinating things about the red man and his way of life. Regular classes are offered in Indian Crafts and Lore, in which campers may make their own costumes and accessories, master authentic Indian dances, and learn much of the great heritage of our country's first inhabitants.

This fine program is focused in the Council Ring, a lovely secluded spot nestled in the mountains amid overhanging trees, where each week the warriors and the chiefs of the mighty Ridgecrest Nation assemble. As dusk settles, the Big Chief of the Nation, commands the torch bearers to summon the four great tribes—the Apache, Shawnee, Choctaw, and Sioux. Wise One then entreats the Great Spirit, Wakonda, to send the fire of friendship from heaven to light the Council fire. After a period of singing tribal songs, playing Indian games, and participating in dances, those campers worthy of promotion are advanced in Council Ring rank. These ranks - Hunter, Warrior, Brave, Scout, Buck, and Little Chief—are based upon the camper's growth physically, morally, and spiritually. After all the tribes have departed, the fire's embers grow dim, and the sound of the drum fades away as the chiefs retire.

AN EIGHT YEAR OLD CAMPER'S ANTICIPATION

"At camp I will go swimming and go hiking, and catch tadpoles and salamanders. Sometimes I will play basketball. At camp you can do lots of things.

At camp you stay in a caben. (sic) You will like your caben.(sic)

The ages are 8-16. So if you are 8-9-10-11-12-13-14-15-16 you can come to camp. So come on, come on down to camp."

A SIXTEEN YEAR OLD CAMPER'S EVALUATION

"Ridgecrest means a certain responsibility on my part... When asked if I did a certain task when the counselor wasn't present, my word was believed.

I have come to have a confidence in myself that was not present before. I know now that I can hike twelve or fifteen miles a day with a forty-pound pack. I know that I can just use string and plastic to form a tent, and stay dry no matter how much it rains.

I have also learned to hope at Camp Ridgecrest. I don't mean aimless hope, but of looking toward a high goal and working earnestly toward it... So I have found out that hope is a necessary ingredient in success."

A STAFFER'S REFLECTIONS

"The eight weeks I spent at Camp Ridgecrest last summer were the most meaningful eight weeks of my life... The staff was like a real Christian family... they seemed truly motivated by a desire to help the campers... God willing, nothing will prevent me from returning to Camp Ridgecrest next summer."

TWO PARENTS' IMPRESSIONS

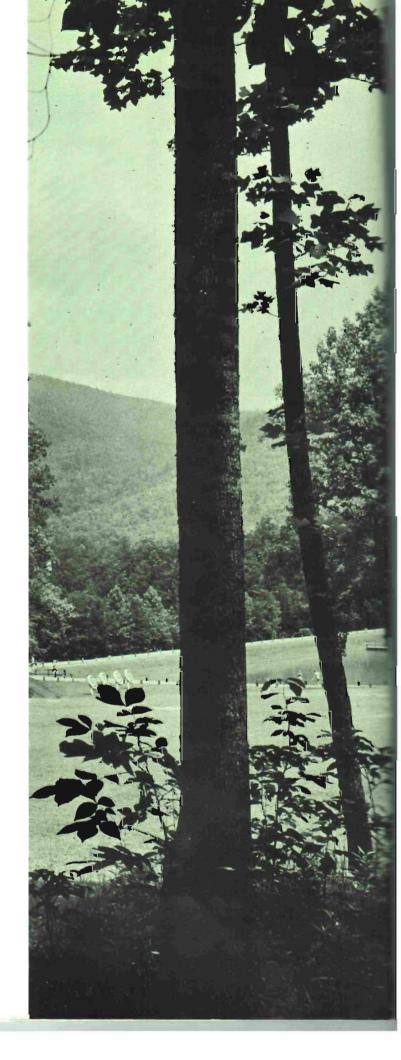

Parent 1

"This year it was very important that I send (my son) to a camp where he could have new experiences and guidance of men and young boys... After considering several camps, and discussing it with others, I decided on Ridgecrest... You had been praised so highly by friends... that I felt your leadership was what we needed... I especially thank you for the medical attention given him... I do appreciate the work you are doing and the time you are giving to our young boys."

Parent 2

"I would like to express a word of appreciation for the experience of Camp Ridgecrest for my son. He is still so full that it's hard to calm him down. Nor will I attempt to do so.

I realize that the honor of Little Chief was one of the first stepping stones to Christian maturity for me... The physical, mental and spiritual requirements for this rank cannot be equaled as a challenge for a young teenage boy to grow in all three of these areas... For this reason I would like to sponsor some young boy next summer."

DATES AND EXPENSES

The 1972 summer season schedule at Camp Ridgecrest begins with a two-week session. This is followed by two four-week sessions. Here is the complete schedule:

Session 1-Two Weeks

June 11 (Sunday) through June 23 (Friday)

Session 2 - Four Weeks

June 26 (Monday) through July 22 (Saturday)

Session 3 - Four Weeks

July 25 (Tuesday) through August 20 (Sunday)

The two-week session costs $140.00. And a four-week session costs $280.00. There are no additional activity fees. A $7.50 per week Camp Bank deposit is required for canteen, camp store spending, out-of-camp trips, craft material purchases, etc. Any balance is refunded at the end of the session.

A deposit of $25.00 is required with each application, the remainder to be paid on Opening Day unless other arrangements are made with the Director. A 5% discount is allowed for boys who have a brother at Camp Ridgecrest or a sister at Camp Crestridge.

(If no application is included with this catalog, we will send you one immediately on request.)

Included in the Camp Fee is horseback riding, transportation to points of interest, $3.50 per week laundry coverage (non-cumulative, overage is charged against the camper's bank account), and accident-illness insurance.

Camp Ridgecrest for Boys is a part of the Ridgecrest Baptist Assembly operation—a program of the Assemblies Division of the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention.

WHAT TO BRING

We present this list of camp clothing as a suggestion. Substitutions may be made from whatever items the boy already has. The camper needs a two-week supply of clothing due to the time required for laundry service. THE CAMPERS NAME SHOULD BE PLAINLY MARKED ON EACH ARTICLE WITH A LAUNDRY PEN OR NAME TAPES. A FOOTLOCKER is an ideal way for packing. Clothing needs are the same for either the two-week or a four-week session.
